“ Aunt Margaret was the eldest member of our family. I always had great admiration for her. I know she is in heaven with those who have gone on before her. She was much loved.

“ Sister Margaret, as I am sure most knew her as, was a treasure on earth. Whenever I was visiting my mother in West Virginia and went to Rock Assembly Church with her, Sister Margaret was always a blessing to me as I sat in her Sunday school class. I loved to be in there and she made it a point to get us involved in conversations and responding to her questions as she shared her love for Jesus and her knowledge of God's word. Blessed lady that will surely be missed. She is home with her Lord and Savior where she had longed to be. Thoughts and prayers from Jimmie & Debbie Slone from Tn.

“ Margaret was such a sweet friend when I lived at Lashmeet. She drove herself to Pipestem to visit my late husband, Kenneth, in 2012. She was just as sweet and nice as I remembered. I am so sorry that she is gone from her family, but delighted that she is in the presence of our Father. Janet Snow Vest
