“ *We are sorry to hear of Margaret's passing. She was Mom's neighbor for many years and I remember how nice she was when I was a child. Her shady back yard was my favorite place to cool off in the summer after riding bikes in the alley behind the house. Our thoughts and prayers to the entire family.

Margaret was a dear neighbor of ours. If we didn't check in daily on her she would call and check on us. A sweet and beautiful person inside and out. She would loan you anything she owned. She was always a giver. We will miss her but we know she is in heaven with no more aches and pains. We love you Margaret. Will see you again. Randy and Lucia Burress.
