“ Mark, I look forward to when we are all together again..forever. You have been missed for so long in this family. Being the youngest of the siblings and taken away doesnt seem quite right, but i trust that God knows best. I can't wait for another big hug from you. I miss you Little Brother...I love you.

ME

“ You will and have always forever will be in my heart! Thank you for the time you spent with me and me and Brooke! Your personality and late midnight calls “what the heck are you doing?” will be missed!

Sending love and prayers to all! Please give my dad a big hug because he is missed daily! Also let dad know his grandbabies love him and I share memories with them all the time!❤️

Rest in peace Uncle Mark!❤️
