“ I so wish there was a way to connect a cord from my mind to this screen so I could share all the wonderful memories I have of my Dad. No words can tell of all the smiles and laughter and love that he added to my life. I can not remember a single time that, no matter the situation, he didnt show me love. The sound of his beautiful voice singing to me will resonate within my heart and soul forever. Love and miss you so, so much Daddy. What I would give to have just one more day with you. Till we meet again... RIP

“ Curt and Eric,

Sorry we couldn't make it in. We wanted to send our thoughts and prayers to you all. Some of my best memories as a kid at Maw Maw and Paw Paw's were listening to stories of your dad.

“ Unfortunately I haven't had the opportunity to see my uncle Curtis (or much of our extended family) in many years because I live so far away. I am so grateful however for how much he and my dad stayed in touch over the years. One of my earliest memories of Curtis was when he was in the Army and I was young. One night he woke me up to say hello because he had come by to briefly see my folks. It was so special to me that he thought enough to actually take the time to come up and wake me just to give me a hug and say hello. But the real kicker to this story is I still remember how cool he looked because he was in his Army uniform and he was all skinny and young. OMG I have gotten soooooo old. All of my memories are so happy when I think of him as they are all centered around our family. In my minds eye he always had a ready smile and loved us all very much. On behalf of myself, Lillian, Kelly, Dan, Holly, Stephanie, Terry, CJ and Michelle we send our love and prayers to all of you and miss you all.

All my love,
Chuck O'Dell (aka Chuckie)

“ Curtis was always ready with a hug and a joke- his laugh was infectious. His had a kind nature and never met a stranger. Always called me Pamela Joy which has popped into my head repeatedly in the past few days as well as the echo of his laugh. We will miss him terribly. Love to all
