“ Minnie Phillips Croy was the strongest woman I ever knew. She raised her family in the toughest conditions in the hardest times imaginable .My Nanny was also the closest to God of anyone I ever knew. I can remember having nothing and no one but could always count on her my PawPaw and Uncle Lee's Family and Uncle Jerrys family to help me and take me in My Grandmothers door was always open and I was never turned away .I have since grown into a responsible man and have worldly things .but nothing more precious than my memories of my sweet Grandmother (Nanny). I send my heartfelt condolences to my Aunt Ann and my Uncles and their family's. See you in Heaven Nanny Love Stephen Derek

A blessing to all who had the pleasure of knowing her. She was my friend and neighbor at Princeton Towers. I would watch for her and open the door for her. I live in Apt 201. You are now with Jesus Christ our savior and it comforts me to know that someday I will see you again.
