“ When I was about 3 or 4 years old, Aunt Nola took me out to my Grandmother's chicken house to see the chickens. The rooster wasn't happy about us being in there and decided to flog me. Aunt Nola grabbed something and flogged him harder. He was out cold and she said "Oh God, I killed Vera's rooster", but the rooster eventually woke up. Aunt Nola always liked to tell that story and we always got a big laugh out of it. We will miss her.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to your family. At times like this, we may ask, "Will death & suffering ever end?" Revelation 21:4 does assure us that "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." Doesn't that sound wonderful? This is a promise from our heavenly Father. Another promise that will bring you comfort is found at Acts 24:15. It says, "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." I hope you find comfort in these scriptures. If anyone would like Bible based information mailed to you free, please email me at shawnehurd@hotmail.com. Again, I am very sorry for your loss.
