“ To my Hillbilly Norman,

We didn't see each other as much that we should have, but when we did see each other, you could not tear us apart. We could talk about anything from sports, politics or anything in between. Your faith in the Lord was the greatest gift. I know that you're in heaven talking, laughing & having your morning coffee with my grandma Gertrude.

I'm sorry that I haven't seen you in awhile. Just know that you were never that far away from my thoughts. I Love you Sweetheart!

*You know that I hated goodbyes, so Until Next Time!
