“ I would like to send my condolence and warming comfort to your family at this time of great grief. Did you know that you have a chance to see Oma again in perfect health? At Act 24:15: "and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." This means that God has promise her a resurrection where she can come back in perfect health, sound mind, and perfect body. She has a hope to be with you again. At James 4:8 it mentions if you are drawing close to God he will draw close to you. So at this time please lean on God who is truly wanting to heal your pain. May you have peace

“ All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. I know that God has received a new angel leaving a lot of broken hearts but know that she is pain free and with her husband, mother and father, sisters and brothers and one day I believe we will all be joined together, if there is anything I can do to help let me know. RIP Aunt Oma
