“ Mama was truly a strong woman to look up to. I was so blessed to marry her son and have her in my life . from the first day I Met her I called her mama. Every holiday birthday and every time we could we all got together as family . We had the best times. I remember when she first moved back to WV me her and Tim having late night dinners and laughing so hard we would hurt. She hugged me on my wedding day to her son and told me she was as happy as she was on her wedding day. She always made me feel like her daughter and my girls like they was her own. I truly am heart broken and will miss her so much . Rest in heaved mama till we met again all my love. Marsha Kanode
