“ I have so many fond memories of Pat. She was the teacher assistant when I attended kindergarten. Years later, we became coworkers, then she and I shared a kindergarten classroom for several years. She loved working with the kids and enjoyed her daily music time with her treasured records and record player. I remember once a student told her that the record was “a really big cd”. The students loved it when she would bring out an old film strip and share that with them as well. We shared many special moments creating learning experiences for our students. Condolences to the family, sorry for your loss! 💜
