“ I love you, Nana Peggy. I never got to see you and talk to you and tell you about how I changed and how much you helped me grow. You were one of the strongest ladies I knew and I had the privilege to be your grandchild. Thank you, Nana, for being everything and more. You're with my daddy now.

“ Momma Peggy was more than just a friend to me. Through her daughter, Kim, she became family. Watching mine and Kim's kids grow up, me helping put on Tonya's wedding and taking pics of it for her, watching Tonya and Seth go to high school. Then all of those grandkids started coming. Peggy was a shoulder for me at times I didn't have one. We shared many laughs and some extremely sad times. ”

My heart misses you but it also knows that you are walking those streets of gold with both healthy legs with Preston.

“ Peggy was such a fun person when we grew up. I remember getting together at Basham's with Sylvia(Kinzer) and Sharon Walker, and Pat Dalton-Riggs. But there was always one Saturday a month that she went to church across the street from Basham's. I don't remember why they only met once a month. She was always a very caring and kind person. I will miss our chats on Facebook. Donna (Mills) Stenlund
