“ I can honestly say that Aunt Phyllis was so kind and loving to me. I will always remember her warm and compassionate side. I enjoyed some of our intimate talks that we had when I would come for a visit. I appreciated that she was willing to share with me and get to know me better in our conversations. I will always remember her smile and her willingness to help others. Her faith in the Lord will always be remembered by us all. You have gone to be with the Father up above and will never be forgotten. Love you and will miss you , but will see you again.

“ I don't ever recall a time growing up and visiting that I saw or heard her speak a negative word about anyone or arguing with my uncle Mac. She was always an encouragement to me after I became a Christian to tell as many people as I could about Jesus and how HE healed me and came into my life. That was the first thing she said to me after my healing “now go and tell everybody what God has done for you”. She laughed at my stories and I'd tell as many as I could because I enjoyed our times together. My heart hurts for my Uncle and family and I'm praying for them but my soul yearns a little more to see the face of Jesus after her passing because I know that His promise of eternity is being fulfilled in her earthly passing. And oh what a time it will be to see my Savior starring back at me with His loving arms opened wide a heavenly embrace that will never subside.

“ Unbelievable shock when I got the message that Phyllis had passed. I was in Arizona and to say unbelievable I was so overwhelmed with sadness and loss for my friend. Loved her and Mac so very much. I know Mac has lost his love and Dwayne, his mother. All of our loss is Heaven's gain. The heavenly choir just got brighter. And we all know she is in a much better place and didn't have to suffer in pain so long. Phyllis, I'll miss your sweet smile and our talks about clothes and flowers. Tell my brother I love and miss him. God bless and Rest In Peace.
