“ Aunt Mola will be missed! We loved visiting West Virginia and getting a warm welcome hug from Aunt Mola ... then being fed with her delicious homemade biscuits and gravy. She wouldn't let us leave the table until we couldn't eat any more. Then sitting outside on the porch or in the living room, talking for hours and listening to stories. Until we see her again, we'll remember the good times with her, her loving heart, her boundless hospitality, and her quick wit and humor.
