“ Randy was my supervisor for almost 2 years at Lowes. He was a patient man, especially with me. He always greeted me the same for those 2 years with "hey bud, glad you're here". He will be missed. Rest in peace, good sir.

Randy was a good man who really loved his animals. Most of the conversations we had over the last couple of years were about our dogs. He was always telling me stories about the cute things his dogs were doing. He would even whip out his camera and show me the latest pictures he had of them...Just like any other proud papa...he will be missed.
