“ I was sad to read this news and while I haven't seen Regina in years, I smile at my early memories of her when we were teenagers. We met and became friends at Kegley Baptist Church.
Her sense of humor kept me laughing. God bless all who loved her with great memories.

Our hearts are broken. The Stadvecs and Plumleys never had a better friend, or prayer warrior. Her prayers were answered with our precious Sadie.

My heart goes out for Leonard known them both for years grew up with. Regina in Kegley, I called her the girl on the other side of the railroad tracks. She has always been a very sweet and caring all our life growing up. She always would visit my mom when she was bad off and lift her up in which no one else would visit her but Regina was there every week, my mom left her a little token when she passed with Regina's name on bottom of it. RIP Regina all in the arms you Jesus, please Jesus take care of Leonard. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

Regina was a wonderful friend to my twin sister, Teena, and my mother Billie. She cared deeply about them. She showed her love for God and my family members in a myriad of ways: caregiving, laughter, and keeping our home. We were blessed in knowing her. May her family find comfort. And may Regina rest in peace. Her kindness will always be remembered.
