“ Dear Sweet Cheryl, I am so sorry for your loss. You had one of the most wonderful Mothers I have ever known. Always a smile and kind word to share. I have been thinking about how grateful I am that she came back to WV . So trustworthy! I found I loved to talk with her , everything she said was wise and thoughtful. Never once did she and your father visit that they didn't bring my mother something and you know my moma adored Reva and Roy! This picture says it all! Look at that Beautiful Smile! With Reva there was never just that one special time I remember it was every time we got the chance to be with her, She would light up the room, She was Joy and Love and a Friend to everyone! Thank you for sharing your Moma with us! The World was a better place with Aunt Reva in it! We Love You REVA!
