“ It will be 9 years since I lost you. I am still not the same as I was when you was with me. Dad I miss you so much, the pain cuts like a knife even till this day. You was my one and only best friend, the only person in my life that I knew that I could count on and the only person who loved me even on your bad days. I so wish you was here with me today to see your grandson and two granddaughters but I know you are in heaven looking down on me and my kids. What I wouldn't give to see your face and to hear your voice just one more time. I wish my husband could have met you , you would love him so much. People say the pain gets better over time but I don't think that is true. While everyone else was living their own life and moving on, well not for me when I lost you it was like time stopped and I didn't want to let you go. I was your little girl and I needed you , still need you but until I can see you again , guess I will have to be strong just like you taught me. Dad I use to be mad at you for dying cause you promised me to always be with me but after awhile I wasn't mad anymore ,I knew that heaven needed you more then I did. God I miss you so much. I will never ever forget you ever dad.. I love you so much.
