We are all just Passing through this journey we call life. Our real home is in heaven where our Heavenly Father lives. The Bible says we all have an appointment to die, we do not know what day or time of the day God will call us home. We do not know what age we will be. All we know is we will leave this earth. It is always so sad when they are young, like this beautiful young lady. So since we know all of these things, let us not neglect to love our families that God gave us, and our friends because we never know when they will leave us and be called home to heaven. I Pray that God would comfort this family that lost this Precious young girl. And give them Peace that only Jesus our Saviour can do. I know what it is to lose a child. It is one of the most Painful things I have ever went through. I will be Praying for this family

“ When I think of Rikkilyn... I see her tiny sweet self on the playground at Lashmeet Matoaka School... Her blonde hair shining ALMOST as bright as that lil sneaky smile. I used to try to get her to talk to me bc she was so shy... She'd tease me, but came around eventually. Then she'd seek me out... Such a beautiful memory of her. Though she be little she was fierce!!! Prayers for you ALL! We love you!!!

She never said I'm leaving she never said good bye God only knows why? She holds a place in my heart that she can only feel. In life I love her dearly and in death I love her still. I million times I cried a million times I've needed you. If love alone could have saved you would have never died. It broke my heart too loose her . But she didn't go alone as the day God took her home...
