“ To the family of Roger Farmer: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death affects everyone on the face of this earth, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptual doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those grieving with comfort or a hope, but they do leave many with unanswered questions. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29, Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19, Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:3, 4).

“ Sorry to hear that Roger had passed... Enjoyed many years on the Rail Road working with him... There wasn't a time when he couldn't figure out what to do. He was always in the mix of things... Surely He will be missed. May God's loving care be with you and the family.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Roger's passing. We worked together for almost 30 years. He always made me laugh. He could be grouchy and funny at the same time. He would do anything to help out a friend and he had a good heart even though he didn't want you to think so. It was easy to see what a good gut he was after you got to know him. I will miss my friend. May God bless you all.
