“ Steve Wiley was a dedicate son to his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He was a very faithful member of the Lashmeet Church of God, and to our prayer group. He rarely missed either one. His heart was so full of God’s love and he showed it by trying to help anyone he could. We will miss him in his favorite spot that he set at church and prayer meeting. But I know there was a great reunion going on in the presence of the LORD. Seeing his Lord and Savior and reunited with his wife and daughter. We will see you on the other side brother. I will miss him being the first one at Church. Love and prayers to the family and friends.
