“ Daddy even though we were there by your side when you passed , it is still so hard to believe that you're not here. All the painful events you have went through I guess we just expected you to get through this too. I love you soooo much and know you loved me sooo much too. Thank you God for making Tommy Rose to be my daddy. Rest well daddy. I love you. Goodnight til we see each other again.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting him and Else in Ohio, when he visited Delmas Riggs... He was a very fascinating fella...He told us stories of his fishing experiences and such...he sure had a way with words and could make a person laugh so hard! I will never forget him...They called me Sis, from Ohio... condolences to all , Hugs and much Love to Else!

Daddy you've been through spook much in this life and have withstand so many trials and hardships but always kept the faith that everything would workout. There has been so many times that we thought we had lost you but you always pulled through, and even though I was right there it is just hard to think of you not being anymore and I'm gonna miss you soooo bad. Thank you God for picking Tommy Rose to be my daddy and for loving me soooo much. I miss you, and will see you and Grandma and Grandpa when God sends for me. Goodnight daddy.
