“ I regret that I was unable to attend the services for Toddie. She was my mother-in-law who provided me with my life long love. Over the 52 years that Mary was alive we were ale to visit Toddie just about on an annual basis. These were good times and we always enjoyed our visits with Toddie. Although all of her immediate family have passed on she has a legacy that we can all be proud of. She has two grand-children who have alrady made their mark on society in a meaningful manner. One teaches in a college and the other is a doctor of medicine. enjoy. always proud of them and in turn they all loved her. Toddie did a good job here on earth and I will always be so glad that she had Mary as her only daughter. She filled my life with joy and love while providing me with two lovely girls.Thanks again Toddie. You did a great job.Ronnie
