“ *To the family of Virginia Jones: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). “Connie, Jimmy and family, We have lost a wonderful friend. Jenny was as close to us as our family. When I was growing up in Covell she was a second mother to me. I have lots of great memories of good times spent with her. She helped me and Helen Reid Taylor make seafoam candy many times. She was always there to help anyone in need. When Roland had his accident, she somehow got the number of the hospital in Charleston and called me there. That was what I needed most at that time. She was so uplifting in a most difficult time. Hope it will comfort you all to know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Love, Roland and Shelby

“Connie, Larry, Jimmy, and family, I just want you all to know how much I truly love Aunt Jenny. She was a wonderful friend and darling. I love her with all my heart because she so freely gave her love to me. I remember her always giving, giving, giving. She often prepared a meal for us. I always enjoyed her cooking. What a gal. I pray that she is fixing Uncle Harold a meal at this time. They were so in love. I loved them both and know that you are happy that they are together again. I have been touched by her sweetness. God bless you all. Rejoice that they are together again. Much love to you all. She always signed her letters, notes, etc. with love and prayers. So, I salute you with the same. Much love to you all. Love and prayers, Cathy Milam Hartley

“ Well, I guess all of the "adopted sisters" are together now. Granny, Ora, Jenny & Janice... Those ladies were such a big part of all of our lives. We were "THEIR" kids. Aunt Jenny would always call me to come & get some scalded lettuce & onions. She would say, " Do you know why nobody else's tastes that good? Cause I put more I love you's in it!" I remember walking with her back home from granny's. & us kids always stopping at her house for a drink of spring water. Lord I wish our kids had people like them to look up to now days... I too can see them all up there carrying on! I love you Aunt Jenny!!!!

“ I was driving home from bluefield yesterday singing some soundtracks that made me think of Miss Jenny.. When I came home mom told me she had passed and tears just wouldn't stop falling. Janice and Jenny were such good friends. I remember going literally everywhere with those two women and I would keep the biggest smile on my face because Jenny was such a joy to be around. I know she is reunited with Janice and her loved ones rejoicing and dancing for The Lord. What a mighty day it will be when we all meet in Heaven again. My deepest sympathy and condolences go out to each and every one of you. Love you all much!

“ God's Love, Peace, and comfort be with the family Aunt Jenny left behind... As she sings Praises to our Lord and Savior and is having an Awesome reunion with our other family members, one day soon we will all get to be together and rejoice for eternity. Even though it is hard to let our Sweet Aunt Jenny go, she has won the victory and would want us to remember all the wonderful memories she has left behind...The Heavens has gained another sweet precious Angel. Till we meet again Aunt Jenny always remember I Love you Bunches and Bunches

“ Connie, Jimmy and all family. We were so sorry to hear the passing of our wonderful friend, miss Jenny. She was such a wonderful person, who knew no stranger. I always loved talking to her and listening to her stories. Her memory of dates and times were always a mystery to me. She was indeed a very special lady whom will be missed terribly. We loved her and felt she was part of our family. Know that your family is in our thoughts and prayers. May God give you the strength to get through this sad time. We love you Alvin and Billie Jean Coleman Jewell.
