“ My Deepest Condolences to the family. Wayne was a very caring person and would keep you laughing. He would always from time to time come by to check on me after the loss of my husband. I had the opportunity to talk with Wayne a few days before his passing and he was at peace with whatever the Lord had for him. My friend and classmate may be gone but never forgotten 🙏

I'm at a loss for words. We attended NHS together & he was always very kind. The last time that I saw him, he still flashed "that smile" and "that smile" always made me smile. Family, as you grieve, please know that there are others who grieve with you. Praying God's comfort, peace, and love to each of you.
