“ My mother Eunice Runyon Bragg was a friend a cousin of Willetta. I remembe visiting with Owen and Willetta and aunt Bessie when they would vacation in Florida. A special time was when Willetta and own took my mother and I deep sea fishing. Owen was a kind and wonderful man and I am so sorry I did not keep in touch with Willetta in recent year. I hope her and owns family still looks at these posts. My name is Teresa Runyon Cowan.

“ *To the family of Willetta Farmer: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. The unscriptual doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4).
