

William Repass

June 16, 2012

PRINCETON— William Scott Repass, 40, of Princeton died Saturday, June 16, 2012 with his mother by his side at Medical College of Virginia. Born July 15, 1971 in Grundy, VA he was the son of Mary Beth Repass McKinney of Princeton and the late David Jeroy Repass.

Scott was a graduate of Matoaka High School and Nashville Auto Diesel College. Prior to his illness he was pursuing a degree in Psychology from Bluefield State College.

In addition to his father he was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Bill and Esther Ratcliff; paternal grandfather, William Nathan Repass and aunt Christine Repass Christ. Also awaiting his arrival is a special cousin, Camri Dawn Ratcliff, whom Scott loved as a sister.

Along with his mother, he is survived by two children David and Christina both of Princeton; and a sister Jordan Hylton and her husband Zack of St. Albans whom will cherish his memory. Scott's life was blessed with a special angel, his paternal grandmother, Latha Repass of Princeton. A bond was established at birth that remained intact throughout his life. She taught him through actions, the meaning of Christian, unconditional love. Additional survivors include Mike, Trina, Tanner and Maggie Beth Ratcliff; Jeff, Sue and Faith Ratcliff; Mark and Sherri Repass and Linda (Repass) Howerton and Roger. Honoring Scott's wishes, his body has been cremated. A memorial service with scattering of the ashes was conducted by his family.

Arrangements by Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton. Online condolences

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Scott was one of my best friends growing up. When we were young Scott taught me so much about life and how to have fun. I will always remember the fun we had during snow days and riding his motorcycle and even the prom we went to together. This world will miss him and so will I.
