“ So sorry for your loss. Take comfort in knowing she is at peace. I spent my honeymoon at her house way back when. She taught me how to make sausage gravy ! I will never forget her technique for mascara... apply and then use a sewing needle to separate each individual eyelash, that was WILD to watch, especially with two young kids running around. God Bless those she leaves behind. Remember the good times and take it One Day at a Time. Love, Penny Nicholson Shaw Houston
